

Rosebank College

BUIS5111 – Business Information Systems

Units 1–3 Test (Alternative): Combined Assessment

Total Marks: 50

Instructions:

1. Answer all questions.
2. Write clearly and show all explanations where required.
3. Use examples where appropriate.

QUESTION 1: Data & Information Concepts (10 Marks)

- 1.1 Explain what is meant by raw data. (2)
- 1.2 Give TWO examples of data used in business. (2)
- 1.3 Explain how information helps managers make decisions. (3)
- 1.4 Distinguish between information and knowledge using a practical example. (3)

QUESTION 2: Information Systems Components (10 Marks)

- 2.1 Name the FIVE components of an information system. (5)
- 2.2 Explain the role of hardware in an information system. (2)
- 2.3 Explain the role of people in an information system. (3)

QUESTION 3: Enterprise & Functional Systems (10 Marks)

- 3.1 Define functional business systems. (2)
- 3.2 Identify THREE functional systems used in organizations. (3)
- 3.3 Explain how an ERP system improves business efficiency. (3)
- 3.4 Give TWO examples of data used in HR systems. (2)

QUESTION 4: Types of Information Systems (10 Marks)

- 4.1 Explain the difference between TPS and MIS. (4)
- 4.2 Describe ONE function of a Decision Support System (DSS). (2)
- 4.3 Explain how Executive Support Systems (ESS) are used. (2)
- 4.4 Give ONE real-life example of a TPS. (2)

QUESTION 5: Case Study (10 Marks)

A hospital uses an information system to store patient records, process billing, and generate reports for management.

5.1 Identify TWO types of data stored in the hospital system. (2)

5.2 Explain how the system improves efficiency in the hospital. (4)

5.3 Identify ONE type of information system used and explain why. (2)

5.4 Explain how information from reports can improve decision making. (2)